CURTIS HOLDS PHILLIES

Brooklyn, N. Y., September 5.—Inability to hit Curtis, the twirler recently secured by Philadelphia from Chicago, caused Brooklyn's downfall this afternoon. Not until the seventh inning was the semblance of a hit made off the newcomer. Meanwhile the Phillies had got to Baker and chased him from the box, while Ragan, who succeeded him, fared little better. Smith, the new third baseman of the Brooklyn, played his first game and made good. Score:

BATTLE AXES EXPECT TO WIN DOUBLE BILL

Washington Bankers and Maryland Athletic Club of Baltimore Here Saturday to Engage in Battle With Local Champions for Intercity Honors.

Back home after that little affair with an army of people called Bankers, in Washington, the Battle Axes team is now preparing for the double-header to be played here Saturday, when the Maryland Athletic Club, of Baltimore, and these same Bankers, of Washington, will attempt to annihilate the home talent at Broad Street Park. The Orioles will be the first to tackle the locals, and the game will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Immediately after the first contest the Bankers will take the field to oppose the Clevelers.

But the members of the local amateur championship team do not feel that the experience in Washington was a slaughter. They regard it more as a lesson they had to learn, and are glad that the learning was not any more difficult than it was. The man who said stage fright was the cause of it all told the truth. Another thing which must be taken into consideration is that a little too much advice was given the fellows. Too many cooks will spoil any cake, and that's just what happened in Washington.

However, byones must be byones, and as experience is the best teacher, the faults discovered while away will have been entirely corrected by Saturday. Neither offensively nor defensively did the team do itself justice. Joe Boehling pitched the kind of ball which should win for him ninety-nine times out of a hundred, but, on the other hand, he was guilty of a couple of wild heaves aimed at centre field fence, which sent the runs across which he was so proud. Brother Frank was also perceptibly troubled with a cold, a sure sign of nervousness, and he failed to do the backstop work with the precision which usually marks his play.

Both the Washingtonians and the Baltimoreans are going to take the best possible advantage of the week's rest. Practice will be indulged in, but for the most part the men will be allowed to recover from the strain under which they have been for several weeks, due to the post-season schedule. The pitchers here should prove much better exhibitions than those in Washington. Over in the capital city the crowd numbered 3,500, but in Richmond it is estimated that fully twice that number will witness the amateur games.

SULLIVAN SENDS HIS RESIGNATION

New York, September 5.—James Sullivan, chairman of the New York State Boxing Commission, to-day tendered his resignation from the commission. Mr. Sullivan states that ill health is the cause of his resignation. In a telegram sent this afternoon to Governor Dix at Albany, Mr. Sullivan says:

"It is with regret that I forward your resignation as a member of the New York State Athletic Commission to take effect at once. I am confined to my room from injuries received in the Fort Wayne (Ind.) wreck, and will be confined for some time. The work of the commission is at this moment of the kind that will require a member who can have his hand at the helm. I had hoped to be able to help the State to regulate a sport that certainly requires regulation, and he who accepts the post should be one able to work. At present I am not."

The commission has called a meeting for Friday, September 8.

You have the opportunity to see five of the most famous trophies ever offered for motor contests---

We have on exhibition in our salesroom:

- THE GLIDDEN TROPHY
- THE MINNEAPOLIS TRIBUNE TROPHY
- THE MASSEPEQUA TROPHY
- THE CANDLER TROPHY
- THE INDIANA TROPHY

The famous Glidden Trophy was won by a Chalmers "30" in the 1910 Glidden Tour, the longest and hardest endurance contest ever held, 2851 miles from Cincinnati to Chicago by way of Dallas, Texas.

The Glidden Trophy is the classic of motor endurance prizes, and until won by the Chalmers "30" was never before held by any car marketing for less than $4000.

In 1908 and 1909 this trophy was won by a Chalmers "40." In 1910 the Chalmers "30" which won the Glidden Tour entered the Minneapolis Tribune Trophy run and secured the permanent possession of the trophy for the Chalmers cars, by maintaining the best average scored for three years.

This car set the world's speed record for light cars—58½ miles per hour—a record which still stands.

The Candler Trophy was won by Knipper on the famous Atlanta Speedway. In this event of 100 miles Knipper, in a Chalmers "30" was first and Matson in a Chalmers "30" was second. In fact, during the entire meet these two cars averaged a mile a minute for every minute they were on the track, and during the entire week, took first place for every event offered in their class.

We invite inspection of the 1912 models of the cars which won these famous trophies.

TARS WIN WEIRD GAME FROM SOX

Suspensions of Fans Aroused When Ninth Inning Errors Nearly Give Game Away.

Norfolk, Va., September 5.—Norfolk won a weird game from Danville to-day at Athletic Park, 6 to 5, and at the close of the encounter nearly every fan in the park was willing to take oath that the Tars, or some of them, attempted to throw the game to the visitors. There was ragged fielding throughout the game, but nothing out of the ordinary was noticed until the first half of the ninth, when Danville came to bat. The Tars had a two-run lead and looked like sure winners. Jobson, the first man up, lifted a pop fly to Babb. Then Poole seemed to go to pieces, and he walked Kauffman. Schrader walked and also Jackson, filling the bases. Cooper lifted a fly to Folles, and Mayberry walked, forcing in a run. Babb walked over to Poole and told him to pitch ball. Hudgins came to bat and struck at the high balls. It looked as if he deliberately struck out to end the affair. After the game it was found that bets had been placed at 60 to 40 on Danville. The score:

Norfolk	Danville
Babb, ss, 3	1
Dodge, 2b, 3	1
